INTERMEDIATE EDUCATION BOARD FOR IRELAND.

The Intermediate Education Board for Ireland, in pursuance and by virtue of the "Intermediate Education (Ireland) Acts, 1878 to 1900," and of every other power them thereunto enabling, do hereby with the approval of His Excellency, WILLIAM HUMBLE WARD, EARL OF DUDLEY, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, make the following additional Rules for the purposes of the said Acts:—

No. 30 of the Rules sealed on the 10th day of May, 1902, is hereby revoked, and in lieu thereof the Rule in the next following paragraph shall take effect from the date hereof, and shall be read, and may be referred to, as part of the said Rules sealed on the 10th day of May, 1902.

30. In the Junior, Middle, and Senior Grades, girls may present themselves for examination in English Composition and Literature, and in the honour papers of any three other subjects of the Programme. Girls will be deemed to have passed the Examination if (a) they pass in English Composition and Literature; (b) obtain honours in at least one of the other three subjects, and (c) obtain in any of such subjects in which they do not obtain honours, the percentages stated in Rule 27 (3).

In the Programme of Examinations for the year 1903, page 46, "French, Preparatory Grade," the following words shall be struck out, viz.:—"1. Erckmann-Chatrian: Madame Thérèse, with questions on grammar, &c., arising out of the text," and that there shall be substituted therefor the words:—"1. Erckmann-Chatrian: Madame Thérèse, sections i. to ix. inclusive, with questions on grammar, &c., arising out of the text."

Given under our Common Seal,
this 24th day of October, 1902.

Present at Board Meeting when Seal was affixed.

T. J. BELLINGHAM BRADY,
SWIFT PAINE JOHNSTON,

Assistant Commissioners.

WE, WILLIAM HUMBLE WARD, EARL OF DUDLEY, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, do hereby approve of the foregoing Rules.

(Signed),

DUDLEY.
